

THE TENTH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON

Knowledge, Culture & Change in ORGANIZATIONS

26–28 July 2010

HEC Montreal, Montreal, Canada

www.ManagementConference.com

Dear Delegate,

Thank you for participating in the Tenth International Conference on Knowledge, Culture and Change in Organizations! We are pleased you will be joining us in Montreal at HEC Montreal and hope you are looking forward to coming together with colleagues and members of the Management community this July.

In preparation for the conference, we have put together some information that we hope will be helpful as you begin to prepare for the conference and your arrival in Montreal. In this document, you will find information such as city maps, conference venue maps, transportation information, conference registration information, presentation information, and paper and journal information.

This packet is a starting point for your preparations, and we realize you may have some additional questions after reviewing the material here. For any questions that remain, please contact the conference secretariat at support@theorganisation.com.

We hope your planning goes well, and we look forward to meeting you in Montreal!

Best Regards,

Audrey LeGrande
Management Conference Producer

For the International Conference on Knowledge, Culture, and Change in Organizations

Transportation To and From the Airport

Taxis

You can get a taxi or limousine at the arrivals level near the central exit located in front of the cloakroom, where a dispatcher will assist you. No reservation is required. All taxi and limousine operators working out of Montréal–Trudeau are required to have a permit and to comply with its terms and conditions. Occasionally, during periods of excessive demand, Aéroports de Montréal may call on outside operators.

Reduced mobility: A certain number of adapted taxis are available at Montréal–Trudeau. Ask the dispatcher.

Taxi fares: Fares by meter for all other destinations except downtown. Minimum rate of $16,25.

Payment Methods: Visa, MasterCard and American Express credit cards are accepted. Some drivers accept U.S. currency but provincial regulations require customers to pay in Canadian currency.

City Buses and Shuttles

Express Bus 747

Since March 29, 2010, the STM operates a new bus line between the airport and downtown. The new line, No. 747, uses dedicated low-floor buses and operate 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It replaces the shuttle service previously provided by the company La Québécoise.

The trip between Montréal-Trudeau and the Gare d'autocars de Montréal above Berri-UQAM métro station takes approximately 35 minutes in off-peak periods. Stops are also planned at Lionel-Groulx metro station, and along René-Lévesque Boulevard at Guy, Drummond, Peel, Mansfield, Anderson and Saint-Laurent.

The 747 is free for holders of CAM and TRAM monthly passes, and for those with 1-day or 3-day tourist cards. Individual tickets valid for 24 hours across the entire STM network are also available, priced at $7 for a one-way trip. At the airport, tickets are sold at the currency exchange (ICE) location on the international arrivals level.

Regular service

The STM public transit service operates a regular bus route 204 that serves Montréal–Trudeau airport from the Dorval bus / train terminus. Furthermore, the regular bus route 209 connects the Roxboro-Pierrefonds commuter train station to Montréal-Trudeau airport.

Fares: adult one-way / $2.75 (exact change)

Public Transport

Transportation within Montréal

The Montréal Metro is made up of 68 stations spread out along four lines. Please follow this link for more information <http://www.stm.info/English/metro/a-index.htm>.
